IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

United States of America,

Plaintiff,

V.

Jesus Adrian Acosta-Salazar,

Defendant.

NO. 19-61037MJ

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. Defendant was present and was represented by counsel. I conclude by a preponderance of the evidence the defendant is a serious flight risk and order the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.

FINDINGS OF FACT

I find by a preponderance of the evidence that:

- The defendant is not a citizen of the United States or lawfully admitted for permanent residence.
  - The defendant, at the time of the charged offense, was in the United States illegally.
  - The defendant has no significant contacts in the United States or in the District of Arizona.
  - The defendant has no resources in the United States from which he/she might make a bond reasonably calculated to assure his/her future appearance.
  - The defendant has a prior criminal history.
  - The defendant lives/works in Mexico.
  - The defendant is an amnesty applicant but has no substantial ties in Arizona or in the United States and has substantial family ties to Mexico.

- 1       There is a record of prior failure to appear in court as ordered.
2       The defendant attempted to evade law enforcement contact by fleeing from law
3      enforcement.
4       The defendant is facing a maximum of _____ years imprisonment.

5                  The Court incorporates by reference the material findings of the Pretrial Services
6      Agency which were reviewed by the Court at the time of the hearing in this matter, except 7      as noted in the record.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

- 8      1. There is a serious risk that the defendant will flee.
9      2. No condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of 10     the defendant as required.

DIRECTIONS REGARDING DETENTION

11     The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his/her
12    designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent
13    practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending
14    appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation
15    with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney
16    for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the 17    defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with 18    a court proceeding.

APPEALS AND THIRD PARTY RELEASE

19     IT IS ORDERED that should an appeal of this detention order be filed with the 20    District Court, it is counsel's responsibility to deliver a copy of the motion for 21    review/reconsideration to Pretrial Services at least one day prior to the hearing set before
22    the District Court.

23     IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if a release to a third party is to be considered, it
24    is counsel's responsibility to notify Pretrial Services sufficiently in advance of the hearing
25    before the District Court to allow Pretrial Services an opportunity to interview and 26    investigate the potential third party custodian.
